INJURY / ILLNESS

If your child is injured or becomes ill while at camp we will call the emergency contacts listed on this Information form. If we cannot reach any of the contacts and if we believe that the condition is an emergency, the student will be treated at the OIC Family Medical Center. If it is after hours the student will be taken to the emergency room. I give permission for my child to be treated. It is my understanding that any medical treatment will be covered by the parent or legal guardian and will not be covered by OIC or Tyson Multimedia Inc. or their affiliates. OIC or Tyson Multimedia or their affiliates will not be held liable.

Camp Polices

WHAT TO WEAR TO CAMP

1. Wear clothes and shoes that will allow your child to participate in the recreational activities.
2. Do not wear clothes that are revealing.

WHAT NOT TO BRING TO CAMP

1. Any electronic device (iPods, cell phones, tablets, etc.), trading cards, toys, skateboards, or anything else that could distract the group's attention.
2. Personal Lego pieces, motors, sensors, etc.
3. Personal valuables such as jewelry, watches, money, etc. We will not be responsible for any lost or stolen personal belongings.

BEHAVIOR MANAGEMENT

To ensure that safety, educational needs and fun is experienced during the summer program by all participants. We ask that each parent take the time to review our behavior policy with their child.

We ask that each student:

- Respect other students, instructors and or Staff
- Actively follow instructions for each afternoon event
- Do not jeopardize the safety of themselves or others
- Do not disrupt the class in session
- Do not damage or misuse the property of OIC, Tyson Multimedia Inc., Nash Community, Skyvue or other facilities that may be utilized for that evening or day activities
- Do not leave the camp for the evening without the permission of parent, instructor or staff

If the student is not able to follow the guidelines the following may occur:

- The student will be allowed to correct the behavior.
- If behavior continues the parent or guardian will be notified.
- If the behavior is not stopped, the parent will be contacted to pick up the student for the evening or day.
- If the behavior continues after the child returns the next day, the parent will be contacted again and will need to meet with Dr. Tyson
